

Hastings Community Woodworkers Guild

Quote of the month: “Most trees were made of wood, and so were the rest.” Spike Milligan, A Book of Milliganimals

Recent Meeting Feb 20

A good turnout by all at the RSL Meeting Room with 19 members attending- and a new member!

Welcome to Matt Johnson, a retired TAS (Technological and Applied Studies teacher) Maybe he will have a few ideas for us? And it's good to know there are two more new members coming!

Future activities:

28 March- members to gather wood at Bob Robinson's shed, working bee to move timber rack to Yippin Creek storage.

2 April- Working bee at Container at Viv's place at Yippin Creek – time to identify and label the wood.

Sancrox Markets – 2nd and 4th Sunday at Cassegrain Winery. Date for a Guild stall to be advised.

Wauchope Agricultural Show- on Fri 10th April- Sat 11th April. The guild has donated prizes for the Open Adult Section ($100) and for the Junior Section ($150). The amounts will be split for $100 for Most Outstanding Exhibit and First Prize ($6) and Second Prize ($4).

Christmas in July- the Guild has been invited to host a stall at this event on 17 July, in the IGA carpark.

Annual Exhibition and sales at Port Macquarie CWA display will be held on 1, 2, 3 October at the Port Macquarie CWA rooms off Town Square. All members encouraged to participate.

Next General Meeting Friday 20 March.

Show and Tell:

Laminated Bowl by Will Howard- he laminated Jarrah, Rosewood and Mango together. Glue used was Titebond 3. Semi-gloss Estapol finished, and painted on.

Jewellery Box by David Wells. Used Purple Heart and Huon Pine Wax finish- Carnauba

Oriental Circles by David Wells made from Camphor Laurel

Pens by George Campbell-used Jacaranda, Red Cedar and Camphor Laurel

Mirrortone polyurethane, with a final coat of Carnauba wax used

And 1 acrylic pen

2 cutting boards by Bill Johnston - out of Camphor Wood with Tung Oil finish

Ian Elton found these Coasters when travelling at Wynnum Men's Shed, QLD and brought them back as an idea for promotional material.